

Teen Zone Safety Contract

I _____ Promise my parents or guardians that I will always follow these rules while I am on the computer, accessing the Internet, or just talking to someone whether at home or away from home.

1. I promise that I will never ever give anyone my personal information, like my real last name, my address, where I go to school, or my telephone number, my age, or even a picture of me, unless I ask my parents for and receive permission first.
2. I promise that I will never ever give my parents' personal information to anyone, like my parents' last name, the name, address or telephone number of where they work unless I ask my parents for and receive permission first.
3. I promise to never ever agree to meet anyone anywhere, unless I ask my parents for and receive permission first and my parents promise to go with me.
4. I promise to never ever go anywhere with anyone that is not my mother or father or guardian, unless I ask my parents for and receive permission first.
5. I promise to never enter any chat rooms that have not been approved by my parents first.
6. I promise to ignore and to never respond to any message that may be weird, mean, ugly, uses bad words, or just makes me feel bad. If I get a message like this I promise to tell my parents about it and show it to them.
7. I promise to never ever create or send a message that is weird, mean, ugly, or contains bad words.
8. I promise to never ever purchase anything on the Internet or to give credit card or bank information to anyone on or off the Internet, unless I ask my parents for and receive permission first.
9. I promise that I will always use good judgment when selecting the type of music that I listen to.
10. I promise to never ever get on the Internet except during the times that my parents have set as allowable.
11. I promise to never ever stay on the Internet longer than my parents allow.
12. I promise to never ever hurt anyone or to ever break the law, whether I am on the Internet or not.
13. Finally, I promise to always be a good Internet citizen and to follow the good netiquette rules.
